Acceptance of credit or graduates is always the prerogative of the receiving institution, employer, or country. For these reasons, besides ascertaining the accredited status of an institution, students should take additional measures to determine, prior to enrollment, whether their educational goals will be met through attendance at a particular institution. Those measures should include inquiries to institutions to which transfer might be desired or to prospective employers.
- In the event of a complaint, grievance or dispute with WorldQuant University regarding University procedures, decisions, or judgments, I understand that I have the right to seek a satisfactory resolution through the formal avenues of appeal and redress outlined in the Complaint and Grievance Policy in the University Catalog.
